SOUTHERN PORTS MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS AGREEMENT 2025

COMMISSIONER LIM

PERTH, 3 SEPTEMBER 2025

Application for approval of the Southern Ports Maintenance and Operations Agreement 2025.

[1] Southern Ports Authority Trading AS Southern Ports (the Applicant) has made an application for the approval of an enterprise agreement known as the Southern Ports Maintenance and Operations Agreement 2025 (the Agreement). The application was made under s 185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (the Act). The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[2] On the basis of the material contained in the application and accompanying declarations, I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss 186, 187 and 188 as are relevant to this application for approval has been met.

[3] I note that the following clauses in the Agreement appear to be inconsistent with the National Employment Standards (NES):

- (a) Clause 49.2 – The Agreement states that domestic violence includes physical, sexual, financial, verbal or emotional abuse by an Immediate Family member. This definition appears to be inconsistent with s 106B of the Act which provides that family and domestic violence is violent, threatening or other abusive behaviour by a close relative of a person, a member of a person's household, or a current or former intimate partner of a person.
- (b) Clause 53 – The Agreement states that employment may be terminated by the employee by providing 2 weeks' notice and may be terminated by the employer on the provision of 4 weeks' notice, or payment in lieu of notice. Clause 29.1 of the Port Authorities Award 2020 (the Award) states that the period of notice is 1 week for employees who have been employed for no more than 1 year.

[4] However, I am satisfied that under clause 4.2 of the Agreement, the more beneficial entitlements of the NES will prevail where there is an inconsistency between the Agreement and the NES.

[5] The Agreement does not contain a workplace delegates' rights term, as required by s 205A (1) of the Act. Under s 205A (2), the workplace delegates' rights term in Clause 25A of the Award is taken to be a term of the Agreement.

[6] The Maritime Union of Australia, a Division of the Construction, Forestry and Maritime Employees' Union (CFMEU) (the organisation), being a bargaining representative for the Agreement, have given notice under s 183 of the Act that they want the Agreement to cover them. In accordance with s 201(2), and based on the declarations provided by the organisation, I note that the organisation is covered by the Agreement.

[7] The Agreement was approved on 3 September 2025 and, in accordance with s 54, will operate from 10 September 2025. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 31 December 2026.

55. Economic Downturn Flexibility

55.1 This clause is intended to provide the Employer, the Employee and the Union with Agreement Flexibility for the purpose of managing operational requirements and minimise the need for potential redundancies in the case of significant Economic Downturns that may affect the Employer's sustainability.

55.2 For the purpose of this clause an 'Economic Downturn' is defined as a significant decline in trade, revenue, or economic conditions that negatively impacts the ability of the Employer to sustain its current operations and workforce.

Temporary Changes

55.3 In the event of an Economic Downturn, the Employer may implement Temporary Changes to term and conditions of employment, including but not limited to:

- a) adjusting hours of work; and
- b) modifying work rosters; and
- c) providing alternative job roles or responsibilities.

55.4 Temporary changes in accordance with this clause require the agreement between the Employer and the affected Employee. Where multiple employees are impacted, the agreement must be reached with the majority of affected Employees.

55.5 All changes under this clause shall comply with applicable legalisation.

Notification

57.8 A decision made by the Fair Work Commission is subject to an appeal against the decision of a single member of the Fair Work Commission to the Full Bench of the Fair Work Commission under and in accordance with s 604 of the Act and not this term.

57.9 To the extent possible, the parties to a dispute intend that a decision of the Fair Work Commission under this term will be subject to judicial review and that the Full Bench deal with any appeal under this term in accordance with its statutory function in s 604, exercising only powers and functions conferred on it by the Act, and not in its capacity as a private arbitrator.

57.10 It is a condition of validity that any decision of the Fair Work Commission under this term is legally correct. A decision that is not legally correct may be appealed to the Federal Court of Australia on that ground.

57.11 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this term:

25A. Workplace delegates' rights

25A inserted by [PR774763 from 01Jul24]

25A.1 Clause 25A provides for the exercise of the rights of workplace delegates set out in section 350C of the Act.

NOTE: Under section 350C(4) of the Act, the employer is taken to have afforded a workplace delegate the rights mentioned in section 350C(3) if the employer has complied with clause 25A.

25A.2 In clause 25A:

- (a) employer means the employer of the workplace delegate;
- (b) delegate's organisation means the employee organisation in accordance with the rules of which the workplace delegate was appointed or elected; and
- (c) eligible employees means members and persons eligible to be members of the delegate's organisation who are employed by the employer in the enterprise.

25A.3 Before exercising entitlements under clause 25A, a workplace delegate must give the employer written notice of their appointment or election as a workplace delegate. If requested, the workplace delegate must provide the employer with evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of their appointment or election.

25A.4 An employee who ceases to be a workplace delegate must give written notice to the employer within 14 days.

25A.5 Right of representation

A workplace delegate may represent the industrial interests of eligible employees who wish to be represented by the workplace delegate in matters including:

- (a) consultation about major workplace change;
- (b) consultation about changes to rosters or hours of work;
- (c) resolution of disputes;
- (d) disciplinary processes;
- (e) enterprise bargaining where the workplace delegate has been appointed as a bargaining representative under section 176 of the Act or is assisting the delegate's organisation with enterprise bargaining; and
- (f) any process or procedure within an award, enterprise agreement or policy of the employer under which eligible employees are entitled to be represented and which concerns their industrial interests.

25A.6 Entitlement to reasonable communication

- (a) A workplace delegate may communicate with eligible employees for the purpose of representing their industrial interests under clause 25A.5. This includes discussing membership of the delegate's organisation and representation with eligible employees.
- (b) A workplace delegate may communicate with eligible employees during working hours or work breaks, or before or after work.

25A.7 Entitlement to reasonable access to the workplace and workplace facilities

 - (iii) electronic means of communication ordinarily used in the workplace by the employer to communicate with eligible employees and by eligible employees to communicate with each other, including access to Wi-Fi;

 - (v) office facilities and equipment including printers, scanners and photocopiers.
- (b) The employer is not required to provide access to or use of a workplace facility under clause 25A.7(a) if:

 - (iii) the employer does not have access to the facility at the enterprise and is unable to obtain access after taking reasonable steps.

25A.8 Entitlement to reasonable access to training

Unless the employer is a small business employer, the employer must provide a workplace delegate with access to up to 5 days of paid time during normal working hours for initial training and at least one day each subsequent year, to attend training related to representation of the industrial interests of eligible employees, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) In each year commencing 1 July, the employer is not required to provide access to paid time for training to more than one workplace delegate per 50 eligible employees.
- (b) The number of eligible employees will be determined on the day a delegate requests paid time to attend training, as the number of eligible employees who are:
 - (i) full-time or part-time employees; or
 - (ii) regular casual employees.
- (c) Payment for a day of paid time during normal working hours is payment of the amount the workplace delegate would have been paid for the hours the workplace delegate would have been rostered or required to work on that day if the delegate had not been absent from work to attend the training.
- (d) The workplace delegate must give the employer not less than 5 weeks' notice (unless the employer and delegate agree to a shorter period of notice) of the dates, subject matter, the daily start and finish times of the training, and the name of the training provider.
- (e) If requested by the employer, the workplace delegate must provide the employer with an outline of the training content.
- (f) The employer must advise the workplace delegate not less than 2 weeks from the day on which the training is scheduled to commence, whether the workplace delegate's access to paid time during normal working hours to attend the training has been approved. Such approval must not be unreasonably withheld.
- (g) The workplace delegate must, within 7 days after the day on which the training ends, provide the employer with evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of their attendance at the training.

25A.9 Exercise of entitlements under clause 25A

 - (iii) not hinder, obstruct or prevent the normal performance of work; and

- (iv) not hinder, obstruct or prevent eligible employees exercising their rights to freedom of association.
- (b) Clause 25A does not require the employer to provide a workplace delegate with access to electronic means of communication in a way that provides individual contact details for eligible employees.
- (c) Clause 25A does not require an eligible employee to be represented by a workplace delegate without the employee's agreement.

NOTE: Under section 350A of the Act, the employer must not:

- (a) unreasonably fail or refuse to deal with a workplace delegate; or
- (b) knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading representation to a workplace delegate; or
- (c) unreasonably hinder, obstruct or prevent the exercise of the rights of a workplace delegate under the Act or clause 25A.

26.1 If an employer makes a definite decision to make major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer must:
